

The do not call law is the best piece legislation that NJ has ever passed. Please not change this law. It is unbelievable annoyance to be harrassed constantly all day long ,during dinner ,and right up until bedtime with marketing calls. If this law is reversed I will get rid of my house phone.I do not ever want to experience that harrassement again.